

The airwaves belong to the people. We allow media companies to use them in exchange for their assurance that they're serving the public interest. It's the FCC's job to make sure that happens. Please hold the FCC to its mandate and oppose the rule change.